

Our family really likes the Telephone Consumer Protection Act. We can now eat our dinner and have family time without being constantly interrupted by unwanted telemarketing calls.

We would like to see a similar list for businesses. We have a small business and receive several phone solicitations per week. We have repeatedly tried to get other businesses to take us off there phone lists without success.

Thank you for your attention.